DEMONSTRATOR

JOHN ADAMS

John has been a self-employed welder and fabricator in Rochester, Mn. for over 35 years & has been studying blacksmithing since the early '80's. His interests lie in traditional forms & processes, Viking art, repousse', pattern welded & wootz steel, and making iron from ore. He owns Tunnel Mill Crafts School where he teaches blacksmithing & hosts classes led by master smiths. John will demonstrate making a Viking axe with silver wire inlay & repousse' techniques using sheet metal.

ROGER COOK

Roger was a welder and a member of the Boilermakers' Union for 35 years. In 1996 he began blacksmithing as a hobby and working as a re-enactor. After taking a knifemaking class from Kay Vikstrom, he was hooked on making Puukkos . He will demonstrate his way of making both a Puukko knife and a sheath.

FRANK BERA

Frank is a re-enactor who will teach a class on primitive willow baskets. $8 fee.
